Informant stated that according to information obtained in 1945, as the result of the interrogation of Walter SCHELLENBERG, a personal friend of Heinrich Himmler and an important figure in the German RSHA, officials in Germany were very much interested in the return of Dr. Bohr to Denmark after he fled Denmark in 1943. SCHELLENBERG reportedly stated the question of how Bohr had been able to go to America was a touchy subject in Germany and one which no one dared to approach openly. SCHELLENBERG was on the belief that Bohr was able to leave through the carelessness, or with the help, of someone in the Ministry of Education. SCHELLENBERG according to the informant, surmised without any proof, that the person responsible may have been Dr. Adams (mu) who had charge of ratters concerning professors in occupied regions.
